DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 1 is objected to because it should appear on a separate page. It is currently on the same page as the specification amendment. Appropriate correction is required.

The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not).

In this application, cancellation of claims 10-12 and renumbering of claims 13-20 are improper because the dependency of renumbered claims 15-17 are to later appearing claims. Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Those claims are considered indefinite because of their dependency on later appearing or non-existing claims. For example, claims 16 and 17 depend upon claims 18 and 19 respectively. However, there is currently no claims 18 and 19 in the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3, 5-9, and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Etzcorn (US 3,814,078). Etzcorn is considered to disclose the claimed invention comprising:

a generally rectangular base member 10 dimensioned to fit beneath and project beyond the outer periphery of an outdoor cooking grill

a rear wall member 12 hingedly connected to said base member wherein, the rear wall member has the same general dimensions as said base member a pair of side wall members 21 & 22 wherein, each side wall member is hingedly connected to a selected one of the rear wall member and the base member. Etzcorn is also considered to disclose the claimed fireproof fabrication material (implicitly disclosed at column 1 line 25), heatproof material fabrication (implicitly disclosed at column 1 line 65), releasably securing means for upright positioning (column 1 line 55), and at least one gas line opening 26 between or associated with one of the wall members.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Etzcorn.

Etzcorn is considered to disclose the claimed invention, as discussed above under the anticipatory rejection, except for the claimed aluminum. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to provide aluminum for the claimed wall and base members, since the patentable distinction of aluminum is not clear and it appears the claimed invention can be performed by primary reference Etzcorn with or without the claimed aluminum material.

Claims 10-13 and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Etzcorn in view of Somerton (US 5,351,673). Etzcorn is considered to disclose the claimed invention, as discussed above under the anticipatory rejection, except for the claimed height and alignable handle apertures. It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the teachings of Etzcorn with height and alignable handle apertures, considered taught by Somerton, for the purpose of allowing environmental interference with the cooking surface while at the same time allowing ease of mobility.
